[REDACTED]'s current catch was a ex LTTE intelligence. She was reading law at the Colombo law college while working as a undercover in Colombo for the LTTE. During the last days of the war her cover was broken and she jumped out of the country with LTTE's network assistance

Basically she got connected to the monkey via Facebook. She has now inherited one of [REDACTED] house hence. That was a god sent gift for the monkey as he was sofa surfing in various friends houses (Senan, late Kutty) in the UK. I will write the full story shortly as it's in work in progress. All these lawyers story's are from monkeys 3rd 'wife' [REDACTED]. Apparently these lawyers men have something to do with [REDACTED] - that is the link here. They have a history
